

Valérie Rizk joined Hugau Gestion in 2022 after spending six years at Société Générale, first at the General Inspection Department and then in the Economic and Sector Research Department.

Within the company, she is in charge of economic research. She also participates in the establishment of the investment strategy in collaboration with the management teams. Valérie is a Supoptique engineer (specializing in signal and image processing) and a graduate of HEC (Grande Ecole program, Managerial and Financial Economics major).