

Catherine Huguel is a Doctor in Economics with honors (Panthéon-Assas), Member of the SFAF (French Society of Financial Analysts) and NABE (National Association for Business Economics). She was an economics professor in Assas before being a consultant at the OECD and then at the CCIP (Paris Chamber of Commerce and Industry).

In 1981 she returned to Paribas as a Board Executive. In 1986 she joined Ecofi where she was Managing Director until 1996 and President of Ecofi Gestion from 1997 to 2001, when the group was sold to BCV.

Catherine Huguel became in 2002 Managing Director of Ecofi Investissement then joined Hugau Gestion in September 2006.