

Eric Le Maire is a graduate of the Institut Supérieur de Gestion. He started his career as a portfolio manager at UIC-SOFAL before joining the Finacor group as an interest rate options broker in 1994. He continued as a broker to develop the Euro market at Tullett Liberty in London in 1997.

In 2001 he joined Merrill Lynch Investment Managers, now BlackRock, where he was in charge of the Paris office in 2005.

At the beginning of 2008 he joins Hugau Gestion as managing partner with Daniel and Catherine Huguel to take care of the development of the company.