

Philippe Weller is a graduate from the European Business School in London. He started his career as a Broker on foreign exchange options in London at Tullett & Tokyo in 1997, then as Sales in Paris at HSBC CCF in 2000, Tradition Securities and Futures in 2004, and continued as Sales Trader at JP Morgan Cazanove in London in 2005.

In 2007 he joined the Financière de Champlain where he was in charge of the development of European and French clients. He joined Convictions AM in 2011 to develop the international clientele.

In November 2017, he joined Hugau Gestion as Development Manager to increase the customer base in France and Europe.